MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 9.

DEATHS.—Early in February, two of our former students died under circumstances which caused generally sympathy, but a notice of their death was accidentally omitted in our last issue.

J. Walter Atkinson and Robert F. Padgett were both young married men; both strong and apparently destined to a long and useful life. But Providence ordained it otherwise; the former was seized with pneumonia and, going out too soon, had a relapse, which carried him off quickly, while the latter fell a victim to a rapid consumption. They both died and were buried almost at the same hour, the Order of Knights of Pythias to which both belonged, consigning first one and then the other to the graves and the funeral services, being performed by the same minister, Rev. Dr. Sprigg, of Grace Church. Mr. Atkinson had a son born to him just after his death, but it has since died. Mr. Padgett leaves a very interesting little boy two years old.

Both were great favorites with their school fellows, and their early departure from this life will be long and sincerely mourned by many who had learned to love them.

Since writing the above, we have received the melancholy intelligence of the death of Patrick H. Hanrahan, a grocer of this city, who was a member of the school nearly twenty years ago. He died very suddenly, on the morning of the 21st ult., of congestion of the bowels, leaving a wife and three small children. He was a man of unblemished reputation, about thirty-six years of age.—Academy Journal.

instrumental in first introducing this preparation to the notice of the Virginia trade, and during that time we have sold several thousand bottles
of it, and with great and almost universal success. It is in bottles of two and four sizes at 50c and $1 each, respectively. The trade supplied at proprietor's rates.
